Noble A. Hull was the Camden County Census Taker. He began the census August 12th, and completed it October 10, 1850. He either was not a resident of Camden County, or failed to include his own name and/or family in this census, though he was the Camden County Assistant Marshall. In many cases where he ditto'd Georgia as the birthstate, he did not continue the dittos to the end of the page; thus, in families where "no birthstate recorded" is shown, it can be assumed that the intent was Georgia.
