The Papers of

HAMILTON FISH

The papers of Hamilton Fish (1808-1893), U.S. Representative and Senator for New York, Governor of New York, and U.S. Secretary of State, were deposited in the Library of Congress by Hamilton Fish, Jr., in 1938. In 1943 Mr. Fish converted the deposit to a gift. Additions to the papers were contributed by members of the Fish family and purchased, 1963-74.

• Microfilm editions of Fish's diary, 1869-77, on 6 reels, and his Governor's papers, 1836-50, on 18 reels, are available from the Library's Photoduplication Service for purchase subject to the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.). These microfilm editions may also be requested on interlibrary loan through the Library's Loan Division.

Scope and Content Note

The approximately 61,000 items in the Hamilton Fish papers span the years from 1732 to 1914, but the bulk of the collection falls in the period between 1840 and 1890.

The papers are organized around two long correspondence series. The first, consisting of bound volumes of incoming letters, extends from 1804 to 1894 and includes a partial index. The second, letterpress copybooks, covers the years from 1831 to 1893; each volume in this series is individually indexed. Department of State files, scrapbooks, Governor's papers, journals and diaries, a subject file, miscellany, and transcripts of correspondence prepared by John Bassett Moore (1860-1947) complete the collection.

Much of the collection is related to Fish's career as Secretary of State in the two administrations of Ulysses S. Grant. The Department of State files include bound volumes of diplomatic and domestic drafts and are complemented by drafts, transcripts, accounts, memoranda, and reports, all related to the conduct of the foreign affairs of the nation. There is considerable material relating to the Alabama claims and the Treaty of Washington. Other subjects include Canadian reciprocity, fisheries, Cuba, Spain, Santo Domingo, and Haiti.

The remarkably detailed diary kept by Fish during his tenure as Secretary of State is represented by a typed copy, prepared by John Bassett Moore, as well as the seven volumes of the original manuscript. The diary has also been reproduced on microfilm.

The correspondence series reflect the wide range of Fish's interests and career. There is much political correspondence, both State and national; letters written in his capacities as Governor of New York and Secretary of State are included, as well as many business and family letters and correspondence relating to the Society of the Cincinnati.

Papers relating to Fish's term as Governor contain his annual messages and a few of his veto messages, but the bulk of the series consists of applications for office and pardons.

Correspondents represented in the papers include Charles Francis Adams, Amos T. Akerman, Henry B. Anthony, Chester A. Arthur, J. Hubley Ashton, Orville E. Babcock, Adam Badeau, George Bancroft, James M. Barrien, W. W. Belknap, John A. Bingham, James G. Blaine, George W.

Blunt, George S. Boutwell, Benjamin H. Bristow, Benjamin F. Butler, John L. Cadwalader, Simon Cameron, Zachariah Chandler, Salmon P. Chase, Robert S. Chew, George W. Childs, Roscoe Conkling, John A. J. Creswell, William H. Crosby, Andrew G. Curtin, Caleb Cushing, J. C. Bancroft Davis, Columbus Delano, John A. Dix, George F. Edmunds, William M. Evarts, Millard Fillmore, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Asa Bird Gardiner, James A. Garfield, Ulysses S. Grant, Horace Greeley, Moses H. Grinnell, Alexander Hamilton, Jr., Rutherford B. Hayes, Ebenezer R. Hoar, Washington Hunt, John Jay, Marshall Jewell, Francis Lieber, William L. Marcy, M. F. Maury, Benjamin Moran, E. D. Morgan, Robert H. Morris, Oliver P. Morton, John L. Motley, Edwards Pierrepont, John Meredith Read, William A. Richardson, George M. Robeson, Robert C. Schenck, John Schuyler, Winfield Scott, William H. Seward, John Sherman, Daniel E. Sickles, Charles Sumner, Zachary Taylor, Elihu B. Washburne, Thurlow Weed, George H. Williams, and Robert C. Winthrop. There is a card index to the correspondence available in the Manuscript Division Reading Room.

An addition to the Hamilton Fish papers was appended in April 1978. It consists of those Fish papers received by the Library in 1963-74. This series is composed mostly of constituent correspondence to Congressman Fish, chiefly 1844-45, and includes requests for favors and governmental publications as well as reflecting concern for national issues such as the annexation of Texas. There is also some personal correspondence between Fish and Thomas B. Dibblee, J. R. Van Rensselaar, and others. The remainder of the addition is composed largely of bills and receipts held by Nicholas Fish.
