New York Dec. 29. 1852

Dear Sir,

I send you a copy of Putnam's Monthly, a new magazine made up entirely of original articles by American authors. The leader on Cuba was written by me. I prepared it with considerable care & take the freedom of asking your attention to it.

I recollect, many years ago, when still in my teens, bringing a letter of introduction to you at Washington from a dear sister, now deceased. Remember, too, your kindness in making my first visit to the Capitol both interesting instruction & some years after that, I have to deal with grateful feelings the very flattering letter, you furnished me to eminent men abroad on their opinion of my second visit to Europe.

 Doubtless all this has passed out of your remembrance. I have not forgotten it. And they to subscribe myself, <sup>very truly</sup> your obliged & obedient
 Richard H. Humboldt
