

Bomb Causes Panic in Cuba.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, Dec. 29.—One person was injured by a bomb exploded in crowded Cespedes Park in the city of Santiago at 10 o'clock tonight. The crowd fled panic-stricken. The explosion followed a political rally held in the early part of the evening by the coalition candidate, Miguel Mario Gomez, now campaigning over the island.