

CUBA REGULATES PRESS

Checks on Use of Newsprint to End Papers' Disputes

By Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, Nov. 9—The Government moved today to settle the conflict between local newspapers over the distribution of newsprint granted to Cuba by the United States.

After a Cabinet meeting it was announced that the price of newspapers had been set at 2, 3 and 5 cents for eight, twelve and twenty page papers, respectively, with editions of more than twenty pages prohibited.