

COMMUNISTS TO GET SEATS

Rejoin Coalition in Cuba on Pledge of 3 Senate Posts

By Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, Cuba, March 9—The Popular Socialist party, formerly the Communist party, returned to the Government Coalition today on the promise of receiving three Senatorships in the June elections, as the coalition announced its nominations for the Senate and provincial Governorships. The period for Senate nominations closes tomorrow.

The coalition Presidential candidate will be Dr. Carlos Saladrigas y Zayas and it is expected Prime Minister Ramon Zaydin y Marquez Sterling, Liberal, will be nominated for the vice presidency.