

SEEKS CUBAN PRESIDENCY

Grau San Martin Heads Ticket of Opposition Parties

By Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, March 20—Former President Ramon Grau San Martin became the Presidential candidate of the opposition parties in the June elections today, when he was formally nominated by the Republican party. His own Cuba Revolutionary party had previously nominated him.

Senator Felix Lancis of the Grau organization was temporarily selected as Vice Presidential candidate.

The Government coalition candidate for President is Dr. Carlos Saladrigas.
