

DR. GRAU VISITS ANNAPOLIS

Naval Honors Are Paid to the President-Elect of Cuba

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

ANNAPOLIS, Aug. 31—Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin, the President-elect of Cuba, visited the Naval Academy today and was received by Capt. S. S. Murray, Acting Superintendent, with full honors.

As Dr. Grau and his official party arrived from Washington a salute of twenty-one guns was fired and the Academy band played the Cuban national anthem. Then, on Worden Field, 3,000 midshipmen passed in review and the band played the anthems of both countries. Later a reception was held at the Officers' Club.
