

Guatemala Honors Cuban Poet

By Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

GUATEMALA, Sept. 11 — The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of José Joaquin Palma, Cuban poet, was celebrated here today under the sponsorship of this Government. Señor Palma came to Guatemala as a political refugee and never returned to Cuba. He is the author of the words of the national anthem of Guatemala. The next school built in this city will bear his name.