

Anti-Castro Agent Captured In Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A Cuban exile who infiltrated his country recently on an anti-Castro mission has been captured there, his organization reported yesterday.

The Cuban Exile Representation (RECE) said the prisoner, Angel Luis Castillo, a member of its "military bureau", had landed in eastern Cuba "as one of a numerous group of anti-Communist combatants" to help coordinate activity seeking overthrow of the Fidel Castro regime.