

FROM PORT ROYAL.

The Rebels Trying to Get Out a Gunboat.

A NEGRO SOLDIER HUNG.

ADMIRAL DAHLGREEN AT PORT ROYAL.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The steamer New York from Bremen has arrived. News anticipated.

The steamer Arago has arrived from Port Royal 4th.

A deserter from Montgomery's negro regiment has been executed.

The defences of Folly Island are nearly completed. Owing to rumors that the enemy is deepening Wappoo Cut with a view to bring down an iron-clad, one of our monitors has been placed in the Stone.

Typhoid fever is quite prevalent in the 8th Maine Regiment, and several fatal cases occurred, principally among new recruits.

Admiral Dahlgreen arrived at Port Royal on the 4th in the steamer Augusta Densing.

The 7th New York regiment left Baltimore yesterday, for Frederick.

Gen. Hancock is in Philadelphia under treatment for his wounds.

Though it was painful there are no fatal signs.

Rumors are current that Gov. Seymour intends to remove the Metropolitan Police Commissioners for cause.

3 O'CLOCK P. M.—Gold 132.

Up to this hour not a word of the Asia's news has been received over the wires.

The Commercial's Paris letter of June 23d, says that the report that the Emperor is pressing his mediation schemes upon England is entirely unfounded.

He adds: Mr. Dayton is preparing for a visit to the United States. This shows that he has no fears or anticipations of anything of the kind.