

A FAITHFUL NEGRO.—A negro boy the property of Thomas Stewart of Monroe county in this State, who was taken prisoner by the Yankees while they were passing through that county, together with eleven mules, and carried to Hilton Head, has succeeded in making his escape through their lines, and reached this city. He is anxious to get back home to his master.