

Darling, my dear brother, I have not been in the least able to do what I wish to do in relation to your affairs. I have been much hindered by the illness of my dear wife. I have been unable to do more than to write you a few lines. I have been very much obliged to you for your kind letter of the 19th. I have been very much interested in your account of your journey to the West. I have been very much interested in your account of your journey to the West. I have been very much interested in your account of your journey to the West. I have been very much interested in your account of your journey to the West. I have
