

Atlanta Ga. July 4th '71

Col. Chas. C. Jones

My dear Colonel - I enclose you a Statement of the Troops under my command as requested by you. I was appointed Brig.
Gen. in Feb. 1864.

I trust the information will serve you purpose. I would call your attention to a "History of the Officers of the U. S. Army published by Col. Gardiner I think in 1864.
in Washington City.

Yrs. very truly
W. J. Walker

Composition of the 3^d. military District of S. Carolina extending from the Ashepoo River
S. E. to the Savannah River, Commanded by Brig.
Gen. W. S. Walker from Oct. '62 to Feb. '64.

3^d. S. C. Cavalry
4th. S. C. Cavalry
Battalion Rutledge
mounted Riflemen
Partisan Rangers (Camp 4)
11th. S. C. vols. (Infantry)
12th. Battal. S. C. Sharpshooters
Beaufort (vol. Artillery)
Lanier Battery
(Virginia)
Lafayette Artillery
The 3-4th. S. C. S. C.
was also stationed for a long time in the Dist.
The number of troops varied from 2,000 to 10,000

Col. P. J. Coleock
Col. B. H. Rutledge
Capt. afterwards
M. Col. W. S. Trenholm
Capt. M. G. Kirk
Col. R. H. Garnett
Major Joseph Abney
Capt. Stephen D. Elliott
afterwards Col.
Capt. G. W. Lanier
Capt. G. L. Kershaw
Col. — Hanson

Composition of Brigade of South Carolina ²³
 Troops commanded by Brig. Gen. W. S. Walker from - February '64 to 20th May '64 when he was ~~very~~ disabled by three wounds at the Battle of Clay's Farm between Petersburg and Richmond in "bottling Ben Butler".
 The Brigade was originally commanded by "Shank's" Evans - he was succeeded by Gen.
 Stephen D. Elliott.

17th So. Ca. Vols.
 18th So. Ca. Vols.
 22^d. So. Ca. Vols.
 23^d. So. Ca. Vols.
 26th. So. Ca. Vols.
 Holcombe Legion

Col. F. N. McMaster
 Col. W. H. Wallace
 Col. C. M. Dantzler
 Col. H. H. Benbow
 Col. A. D. Smith
 Col. Stephen D. Elliott.