DESCRIPTION

Letters, documents, correspondence, miscellaneous material dealing with Georgia history. Letters from 1850 to 1900 are largely personal letters of Charles Colcock Jones, Sr. (1804-1863), his wife Mary Sharpe Jones (1808-1869) of Liberty County, Ga., and of their son Charles Colcock Jones, Jr. (1831-1893) of Savannah and Augusta, Ga. The letters from Liberty County are particularly good in description of plantation life in Coastal Georgia. The letters from 1860-1865 give excellent picture of Civil War life in Georgia and especially Savannah. Collection also contains journal of William Brown Hodgson (1801-1871) covering time from Nov. 22, 1864 to April 5, 1865, when Savannah fell before Sherman's forces in the Civil War.

There are numerous manuscripts laid in the printed and bound copies of Jones' works. These manuscripts are in the process of being listed. (card file available).

Charles Colcock Jones, Jr. (1831-1893) was a lawyer, mayor of Savannah, Confederate Soldier, author, historian. Lived in Savannah and Augusta, Ga.

Additional material concerning the family has been added. Gift of Miss Catherine Stewart Jones of Macon, Georgia.

Box 1, Folder 1 contains genealogical and biographical material.
