

A FAITHFUL SLAVE.—The Raleigh Standard has heard, from a reliable source, of a negro slave who has been within the enemy's lines in the eastern part of the State since the fall of Newbern, who has paid over to his mistress the sum of three thousand dollars, the proceeds of his own labor, having reserved only enough to pay his own expenses.