

FROM PORT ROYAL.

A Negro Deserter Executed—Defenses of Folly Island.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The steamer Arago has arrived from Port Royal on the 4th.

A deserter from Montgomery's negro regiment has been executed.

The defenses of Folly Island are nearly completed.

Owing to the rumors that the enemy is deepening Wappoo Cut, with a view to bring down an iron-clad, one of our Monitors has been placed in the S:ono.
