THE COURT: Hector Llano.

This is a guy in the Palm Beach Jail.
You wanted him brought down.

THE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER: No. We have him in the hold cell. We're not going to bring him out.

Jerry Cantor's in another Court. He'll be in with a report.

THE COURT: All right. I forgot ---

MR. LINK: I thought he was in Palm Beach.

THE COURT: What day did I set it for?

THE CLERK: March 29th. But they didn't want -- from what Jerry said, they don't want to hold him in the jail that long. That's on today so maybe you can set an earlier report date.

THE COURT: All right. Now, you all, somebody in your office is specially handling that.

MR. LINK: Well, sort of in a sense.

Yeah, he was the one who wanted an evidentiary hearing. He wants to testify himself. He wants Steve Mechanic to testify.

THE COURT: Oh, yeah.

I knew I remembered something. I just didn't remember what.

Get hold of Steve.

On Llano, you want me to just arbitrarily set an earlier hearing? Is that what you need, George?

THE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER: Yes.

Jerry Cantor is coming back this morning in about a half hour. He's in ---

THE COURT: If he's going to say that, I don't need to wait for him.

Could you all be ready for like Wednesday?

MR. LINK: Yeah.

THE COURT: They would like to ship him out if things don't go his way.

MR. LINK: I think so.

THE COURT: Set Llano for hearing on February 23rd.

Tell Jerry that's what I did.

[Thereupon, this hearing was concluded.]

THE COURT: Hector Llano.

What is this, an appeal.

THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Who represented him?

THE CLERK: Public Defender.

MR. LINK: Oh, Your Honor, is this Hector Llano?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. LINK: I would ask the Court to continue this motion.

THE COURT: Why?

MR. LINK: On behalf of Mr. Llano, because he would like to be here, too.

THE COURT: I am sure he would.

MR. LINK: To offer testimony in his own behalf.

THE COURT: He likes the trip.

MR. LINK: Also, I believe Steven Mechanic would like to testify under oath in support of the motion itself.

I have been contacted by the Assistant Public Defender who represents Mr. Llano in West Palm Beach, where he is presently being held. And my secretary is preparing an order to have him transported from West Palm Beach back to the Dade County Jail

in order that he might testify at the hearing.

THE COURT: I don't know what's going on, but apparently somebody does. So, when do you want it?

MR. LINK: I would request approximately three to four weeks so that would give them plenty of time to transport him down.

THE COURT: March 29th for report.

[Thereupon, this hearing was concluded.]
