party's newspaper, "Draper Hou- ge (Red Flag) declared the ban would be lifted. Pro-Leopold demonstrations also were discouraged to prevent trouble.

Socialists already have asked young Baldwin to dissolve the present Parliament with its pro-Leopold Social Christian majority and call new elections.

The formal end of Leopold's tragic 17-year reign came in a quiet ceremony before about 250 persons in the huge white and gold ballroom of the royal palace where no one has danced since before the war.

Grau Sends Seconds
To Pelayo Cuervo

Former president Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin yesterday sent his seconds to Dr. Pelayo Cuer-vo. The ex-president took off fense to an allusion to his person conting in an article published in a Havana magazine which was written by Dr. Cuervo.

Although Dr. Cuervo immi-dately accepted the challenge and told Gran's representatives he would appoint his seconds right away, it was reported in Orthodox circles that the Cuban Revolutionary Party will ask Cuervo not to accept the challenge on the grounds that Grau is under indictment for a criminal offense.

Red Cross Heroine
To Be Honored
In Santiago de Cuba

A bust of Clara Barton, then president of the American Red Cross, will be unveiled in recognition of her selfless aid to Cuba's suffering population during the Spanish-American War, during ceremonies to be held in her honor in Santiago de Cuba Sunday, July 22.

Besides the unveiling of the bust, there will be a military parade in which Army, Marine and Police forces, Red Cross brigades and American Marines, who will be sent to Santiago for the purpose, will participate. That night, the First Exhibition of International Dolls offered in Cuba by the Red Cross will be closed with ceremonies in honor of Clara Barton.

Clara Barton landed in Santiago de Cuba in 1899, the middle of the Spanish-American War, persuade the Spanish army to respect the safety zones fixed by the Red Cross, and toured the island, carrying food, medicine and supplies to the places affected by the struggle.

Aid Pr

WASHINGTON

The House Armed Services Committee today approved a bill provided to cut U.S. military and economic aid to Russia or her satelit. It would replace a measure aimed at denying any such aid to help to nations which have war materials.

The measure calls for a Truman to appoint a defense assistance orer who would determine whether a nation should not be supplied or aid to its friends.

Any nation known to have embargoed items for its friends would lose all U.S. aid.

However, the
