
Cuban Duelists Reconciled

SPECIAL TO THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, June 9.—After a brief duel in which neither combatant was injured, Eduardo Chibas, head of the Cuban People's party, and Senator José Manuel Casanova became reconciled. Señor Chibas had accused Senator Casanova of speculating in sugar, to the detriment of the industry.