Cuba Frees People's Party Chief

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, June 5—Thousands gathered to cheer Eduardo Chibas, head of the Cuban People's party, as he was freed from Principe Fortress Prison shortly after midnight last night, as a result of a pardon by President Carlos Prio Socarras. He had been sentenced for having slandered Supreme Court judges.