

Cuba Plans New Air Corps

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, Dec. 31--A voluntary air corps will be created by the Cuban military authorities under a Presidential decree that appeared in the official gazette today. The corps will consist of observation, bombing and service squadrons. The decree does not mention the qualifications for enlistees or say whether they will serve in Cuba or abroad.