
Batista Becomes Major General

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HAVANA, Cuba, Feb. 5—President Fulgencio Batista now has the rank of major general according to a recent law, the secretary to the President, Dr. Morales del Castillo said today. The law provides that a retired officer who has been chief of staff and later President of the Republic automatically attains the rank of major general.