

Batista Undergoes Surgery

HAVANA, June 12 (Reuter)—Early this evening President Fulgencio Batista was rushed to a private clinic for an emergency gallstone operation. According to an official statement issued tonight, "President Batista is resting well after the operation."