Bomb Goes Off On the Grounds of Hotel Nacional

A bomb exploded last night on the grounds of the Hotel Nacional. No one was injured in the blast and property damage was slight.

The blast went off on the lawn behind the swimming pool. It ripped up the sod for two meters around. Fragments were found lodged in the ground and in a nearby palm tree where they ripped off leaves.

The explosion occurred at about 9:45 p.m. and was heard throughout the Vedado sector. The bomb was believed thrown over the wall of the hotel grounds from a passing automobile.

Carnival will Go Out Like a Lion

The last weekend of the 1957 Havana Carnival is coming up. Saturday and Sunday will wind it up for the dazzling parades of floats, “comparsas,” bands and convertibles.

Saturday’s parade will start at 9 p.m. During the course of the evening the carnival jury will select the winning comparsas on the basis of total points scored during the four weekends of the celebration.

More prizes will be awarded on Sunday afternoon, final day of the event. Sunday’s parade will start at 4 p.m. and end at 9 p.m. The best float will receive the Havana Mayor’s Trophy.
