Cienfuegos Battle Nets 35 Captives

Thirty-five men, described as conspirators against the government, gave themselves up to police and soldiers in Cienfuegos Tuesday following a 15-minute gun fight.

Soldiers of the 35th Squadron of the Rural Guard shot it out with the men who were holed up in a house on Calle Tercera del Oeste.

After a 15-minute gun battle the men surrendered. A large number of guns, hand grenades and bombs were found in the house.

The battle started shortly after midnight when members of the Rural Guard attempted to break in the house which had been told that several men were inside the house.

Dr. Domingo y Morales del Castillo was not in his home at the time of the explosion, which occurred at about 7 p.m. Mixture of his family was inside the house, however, the doctor returned a short while later to view the damage.

Four Slain In Santiago

The families of two of the four men found dead in Santiago de Cuba on Tuesday told of mysterious nighttime abductions in the aftermath of the violent killings.

Bodies of the four men were found in two separate areas. The men had been shot and hacked to death by machetes.

Two of them, Roberto Lamelas Font and Joel Jordan, were found eight feet apart near the Mar Verde highway on the outskirts of the city. Eight .32 caliber shells were found nearby.

The bodies of the other two Orlando Fernandez Badell, 30, and Salvador Gonzalez Clavijo, were found Tuesday afternoon among some weeds on 13th Street.

Esperanza Lamelas, sister of Roberto, said that occupants of a patrol car called for Roberto at 10 p.m. on Monday at their home on Olinar and Santa Rita. She said Roberto was in hiding because of the "persecution" to which he was subjected.

The next day she learned of his death.

Edmundo Jordan, brother of Joel, reported that three persons in a Roma car were traveling in the Drinks area. They were beaten up and dragged off Joel. Their mother, Encarnacion Cueso, wanted to go with her son but the three men prevented her.

Bomb Goes Off By Home Of Dr. Morales del Castillo

Police were continuing their search today for the second of the two terrorists who placed a bomb in front of the residence of Dr. Domingo y Morales del Castillo at Linares and "L" Street in Vedado on Tuesday night.

Dr. Domingo y Morales del Castillo was not in his home at the time of the explosion, which occurred at about 7 p.m. Mixture of his family was inside the house, however, the doctor returned a short while later to view the damage.

The explosion of the powerful charge destroyed two automobiles parked in front of the house and did heavy damage to an electric light pole. The autos were property of the Presidential Palace.

The lieutenant ordered them to stop, at which point both bombs were turned over to the police.

The officer opened fire on them with his M-1 rifle "to frighten them," while one of the two bombers overtook one of the two bombers.

The name of the arrested man was Wednesday.

Police of the Eleventh Zone, meanwhile, are still searching for three men who dropped three bombs at the corner of Juan Descartes and Olarin and Santa Rita.

A guard noted that one of the three men was carrying a package under his arm. He ordered the trio to stop. When they started to run, the package fell to the ground.

On examination it was found to contain three bombs.

U.S. Won't Alter Policy On China
