SUBJECT: MISS HORTENSIA MIYARES, ALLEGED CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

On November 5, 1958, Agent A. L. Tarabochia, accompanied by Officer G. Zenoz of the Miami Police Department contacted Miss Hortensia Miyares, W/F, thirty years, 1820 S.W. 24 Terrace, after receiving information that her residence was the scene of gatherings of Cuban Revolutionaries and that there was an illegal storage of explosives in the premises.

After securing permission from the owner, the Agents inspected the premises with negative results. The house is very expensively furnished and Miss Miyares, a very attractive young woman, has no visible means of support as she doesn't have an occupation.

Miss Miyares declared that she didn't have any connection with the 26th of July Movement, although she admitted to being on very friendly terms with Carlos Prio Socarras, former Cuban President and his two brothers, Antonio and Francisco Prio, now under deportation proceedings by the I.N.S.

Respectfully submitted,
