

Cubans honor a patriot

Representatives of Cuban Civic Centers in Kentucky and seven other states laid a wreath yesterday before a bust of Cuban author and patriot Jose Marti in Shively Park. The Cubans will end a two-day convention in Louisville today. The bust of Marti was donated to Jefferson County in 1955 by Cuban president Fulgencio Batista after a group of county students made a goodwill trip to Cuba.

Staff photo by Michael Coers

