

The Aberdeen (Miss.) Democrat says that the "examination of the case of the State against M. J. Bunch, for the alleged murder of Michael Flannin, on Saturday, 13th ul., was brought to a close on Saturday the 20th, after a two days' investigation, and resulted in the holding of the accused to bail, in the sum of $1,000 cash for himself and two securities.
