

THE ELECTION IN KANSAS.

Gentlemen who left Leavenworth City, in Kansas, on the 7th instant, have communicated to the St. Louis Democrat the annexed intelligence in reference to the Kansas election of the 4th instant, which, it is said, passed off with but little disturbance :

At Kickapoo precinct the pro-slavery majority was 864. Doniphan county gave about 500 majority for the pro-slavery ticket.

At Atchison the Free-State ticket was elected by about thirty majority, with the probable exception of Mr. Hereford, a Senator, and one of the members of the Convention which framed the Lecompton constitution, and who voted to have it submitted to the people. He was supported in part by the Free-State men.

Johnson county gave 1,500 for the pro-slavery ticket, (McGee and Oxford frauds repeated)

Bourbon county gave 430 pro-slavery majority.

Douglas county gave 500 majority for the Free-State ticket.

Other parts of the Territory had been but partially heard from, and the returns received led to the impression at Leavenworth that the pro-slavery men had elected their State officers, but that the Free-State party had carried the Legislature. The vote was small, more than half the voters of the Territory having declined voting for State officers, though a very decided expression was given against the Lecompton constitution, the majority against it having been placed at ten thousand. It is said the Democratic party in the Territory is "all split to pieces," with a very large majority bitterly opposed to the Lecompton constitution.

We learn from the Leavenworth Ledger that the average majority given at that place for the Free-State ticket was 925. The following are the returns :

For Governor—G. W. Smith, 1,196; F. J. Marshall, 272

For Lieut. Governor—W. T. Roberts, 1,196; W. G. Mathias, 276.

For Secretary of State—P. C. Schuyler, 1,191; W. T. Spiegly, 271.

For Auditor—J. K. Goodin, 1,195; B. Little, 272.

For Treasurer—T. J. B. Cramer, 270, A. J. Mead, 1,199

For Congress—M. J. Parrott, 1,199; J. P. Carr, 274

For Senate—B. J. Franklin, 267; S. Stover, 266; J. W. Martin, 269; C. Vaughan, 1,188; Sparks, 1,197; C. Chadwick, 1,195.

For Representatives—W. Kempf, 1,188; J. W. Morris, 1,198; G. J. Park, 1,200; J. H. Noteware, 1,191; B. Gray, 1,196; G. W. Gardiner, 1,192; W. Pennock, 1,199. P. R. Orr, 1,198; W. W. Ivory, 270; W. H. Cole, jr. 271. H. M. Moore, 267; J. H. Miller, 266; W. Christison, 266; D. D. Earns, 267; J. Connell, 266; S. J. Kookogee, 266

Those persons in the above list who have the highest number of votes are the nominees of the Free State party. The vote at Leavenworth against the Lecompton constitution was almost unanimous. It is thus reported

Against the constitution.....	1,384
For the constitution with slavery.....	8
For the constitution without slavery.....	2
Scattering	2

Majority against Lecompton constitution....1,372

At Wyandott City the vote for Smith was 358 and for Marshall 173. The vote on the constitution stood :

Against the constitution.....	374
For the constitution without slavery.....	1
