

Later from Texas,

Traders to Chihuahua.—The Corpus Christi Star of the 21st instant mentions the departure of a train of fifty wagons and nearly a hundred men, from that point for Chihuahua, under General Cazneau, on a trading expedition. A large amount of merchandise was taken, and hopes are entertained of diverting most of the Mexican trade that has usually found its way through St. Louis to this route. Among those who went in the expedition the Star mentions Captain Sutton, Dr. Lamar, Colonel Snively, Captain Skerrett, Mr. Frank Hughes, Mr. Davis, Mr. Reed, Mr. Addison, Mr. Colquhoun, Captain A. F. Rudler, and Mr. McNish.
