

Telegraphic News.

From the Houston Telegraph-Extra, 10th

Maryland.

BALTIMORE, March 13.—Gov. Hicks is still unwilling to issue his call for a State Convention. It is believed that the sentiments of the members of the State Conference are somewhat modified. It is thought that a Committee will be appointed to confer with the Virginia Convention.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The steamer of war Powhatan arrived opposite the city to-day.

From the Galveston News, March, 19

Col B. A. Lockridge arrived yesterday from Montgomery, bearing from Hon Howell Cobb, Secretary of State, a certified copy of the Permanent Constitution of the Confederate States, to be laid before our Convention.