

CUBAN FRIENDS RETURN COUNTY YOUTHS' VISIT

STANDIFORD FIELD welcome massed Jefferson County greeters and arrivals beside the plane that brought a delegation of 12 Cuban students, and several adults, mostly instructors, to Louisville to attend unveiling tomorrow of a bust of Cuba's "No. 1 patriot," Jose Marti, in Shively Park. The visit returns one made to Cuba by Jefferson County's Youth Ambassadors.

TAKING IN STATION WHAS-TV, Amado Rodriguez (left), Mercedes Soto, Yolanda Medina and Eddy Gonzales watched John McCrory operate a television camera. They also saw themselves on a monitor screen.

AFTER DINNER at The Courier-Journal and Louisville Times Building cafeteria the visitors went by car to Valley High. Conrad Ott, an aide to County Recreation director Charles Vettiner, drove one automobile.

HIGHLIGHT OF THEIR VALLEY VISIT was a Valley Pool performance by the Aquacettes, composed of young county swimmers. A trip to Mammoth Cave was the main event on today's program for the visitors.

WHAT THEY THOUGHT OF OUR AQUACETTES IS PLAIN on the smiling faces of the young guests as they sat by the pool watching. A 14-float pageant is carded with tomorrow's bust-unveiling. The Cubans fly home Saturday.
