

Col. S. J. Lockridge, of Nicaragua reletivity, is engaged in organizing an independent Ranger Company, for the service of the Confederate States. They are to be armed with Colt's six shooters and Sharpe's rifles. The majority of the members are old Texans.