

The Indictment of General Walker in New Orleans.

On the 3d inst. the Grand Jury of the United States District Court in New Orleans, found true bills against William Walker, Frank Anderson, Dudley McMichael, Jno. S. West and Flavel Belcher, and ignored the bill against Francis P. Powers, charged in the following indictment:—

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA.

DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, }
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA. }

The Grand Jurors of the said United States, good and lawful men, duly impanelled and sworn, in an for the district aforesaid, upon their oath present: That William Walker, soldier, Frank Anderson, soldier, Dudley McMichael, soldier, John J. West, soldier, Flavel Belcher, soldier, and Francis P. Powers, soldier, late of said district, on the 10th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1857, within the territory and jurisdiction of the said United States, to wit, within the district aforesaid, with force and arms, did begin a certain military enterprise, to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State then and there being at peace with the said United States, against the statute of the said United States in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the same.

2. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do further present: That the said William Walker, soldier, &c., did set on foot a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State, &c. &c.

3. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further, upon their oath, present: That the said William Walker, soldier, &c., &c., did provide the means for a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State, &c., &c.

4. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further, upon their oath, present: That the said William Walker, soldier, &c., did provide the means, to wit, men and money, for a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State, &c., &c.

5. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath, present: That William Walker, &c., did prepare the means, to wit, men and money, and munitions of war, the number and names of the men, as well as the amount of money and munitions of war so prepared, being to the jurors aforesaid yet unknown, for a certain other military enterprise, to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State, &c., &c.

6. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath, present: That William Walker, &c., did prepare the means for a certain other military enterprise, to be carried on from thence against the territory of a foreign State, to wit, the State of Nicaragua, the said State, &c., &c.

7. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath present: That the said William Walker, &c., did begin a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the dominions of two certain foreign States, to wit, the States of Nicaragua and Costa Rica—the said States of Nicaragua and Costa Rica then and there being at peace with the said United States, &c., &c.

8. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath present: That the said William Walker, &c., did set on foot a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory of two certain foreign States, to wit, the States of Nicaragua and Costa Rica—the said foreign States then and there being at peace with the said United States, &c., &c.

9. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid do further upon their oath present: That the said William Walker, &c., did prepare the means for a certain other military expedition to be carried on from thence against the territories of Nicaragua and Costa Rica—the said foreign States then and there being, &c., &c.

10. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath present: That the said William Walker, &c., did begin a certain other military expedition to be carried on from thence against the territory of a certain foreign State, to wit, the State of Costa Rica—the said State then and there being at peace with the said United States, &c., &c.

11. And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, &c., do further upon their oath present: That the said William Walker, &c., did prepare the means for a certain other military enterprise to be carried on from thence against the territory of a certain foreign State, to wit, the State of Costa Rica—the said State then and there being at peace with the said United States, &c.

THOS. J. SEMMES,

U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

There were but fifteen members of the Grand Jury present. The following are the names of the Grand Jurors who were on the jury who ignored the bill against General Walker on Monday last, and the manner in which they voted, as placed on the minutes of the court at their request:—

For ignoring—D. A. Wilson, jr., foreman; L. C. Grosjean, W. A. Bartlett, J. M. Gould, C. C. Bier, N. Barrois, J. M. Hall, J. Villarubia, F. A. Gonzalez, S. S. Green.

For finding—Chas. Hille, E. Gannacheau, J. Vinosa, Henry Hopkins, J. H. Low, E. H. Harris, Washington Jackson.

The jury who presented the true bill was composed of the same gentlemen, with the exception of Mr. Henry Legendre, who was not on the former jury, and Messrs. E. H. Harris, J. H. Low and Washington Jackson, who were.

Mr. Soulé stated to the Court that General Walker was temporarily absent. The accused were to be arraigned and held to bail in the sum of $2,000 each, to appear before the United States Circuit Court on the 4th Monday of April next; the indictment being remitted until that time, in order that the Judges of the District and Circuit Court may sit in conjunction.