
THE NOTORIOUS KISSANE.—The Cincinnati Enquirer learns from a gentleman whose authority it considers reliable that William Kissane, of Martha Washington steamboat arson conspiracy, and Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company robbery notoriety, formerly a clerk in the pork establishment of Pugh & Johnson, in that city, and subsequently of the firm of Smith & Kissane, late of the piratical, filibustering party in Nicaragua, commanded by Gen. Walker, under the name of Col. A. F. Rudler, is at Augusta, Ga., recruiting for the Confederate army.
