

A Cuban Patriot Dead.

HAVANA, via Key West, Fla., March 19.—Miguel de Aldama, the Cuban patriot, died, after a short illness, at his residence, No. 48 Calle Prado, Saturday morning. His death is a great blow to the people of Cuba, in whose cause he has spent over $1,000,000. The body has been embalmed, and will be shipped to New York and buried in Greenwood, where the remains of his family rest. The Cuban press is in mourning. He leaves a large estate.
