

South America.

The revolution in Chili still continues. In Bolivia they have peace and a new ministry. The crops are abundant in both countries. The Argentine Confederation is about to join Brazil in a war on Paraguay.

Mr. W. Carey Jones is still in Nicaragua. Col. Francisco Alvarado, who abandoned the Fort of Castillo Viejo to Walker's filibusters the other day, has been sentenced to the loss of his commission and four years' confinement. In San Salvador the planting of coffee trees is being energetically prosecuted.—New York Tribune.
