

Still Later from Kansas---Violence and Bloodshed.

St. Louis, June 10.—The Independence correspondent of the Republican, under date of the 5th, says that Marshal Donaldson and four of his men, whilst in the discharge of their official duty, had been killed near Hickory Point, on the 3d. The Marshal was in the act of arresting the men attached to the party under Captain Pate — Pate's company had increased, destroying houses and driving families from their homes near Bull Creek.

One hundred and fifty men, under Capt. Reed, left New Santa Fe in pursuit of the marauders. Report says that Franklin had not been taken, though it was attacked by a large party. Capt. Pate's company had been liberated.

Gov. Shannon issued a proclamation on the 4th, in which he commands all illegal organizations to disperse, or they will be dismissed by the United States troops. He calls for vigilance in the execution of the laws, and the protection of persons and property, without distinction of party. He adds that the proclamation of the President of the 11th of February will be strictly enforced.

A requisition had been made on Col Sumner for a sufficient force to insure obedience to the proclamation.

Chicago, June 10.—The Democrat has a letter from Leecompton, dated June 4th, which reports several skirmishes between the pro and anti-slavery organizations. The Kansas City Enterprise, detailing the previous advices, says that 30 Southerners proceeding from Westport, under the command of Captain Pattle, to Bull Creek, were suddenly met by an equal party of Free State men, and after two hours' skirmishing the former surrendered unconditionally.

A party of pro-slavery men, including the son of Gov. Shannon, made a night attack on the house of Capt. Walker, five miles from Leecompton, when they were fired upon and repulsed. Young Shannon was taken prisoner, but released the next day. Governor Shannon took a company of dragoons and searched the houses of the Free State men for two days, taking their arms and ammunition.

Col. Sumner passed through Leecompton on the 1th, en route for Topeka.

It is reported that a general rendezvous of pro-slavery men at Bull Creek had been arranged, under the command of Whitfield, and that they contemplate a new attack on Lawrence. They expect to concentrate six hundred men, generally armed with United States muskets. The Free State men have resolved to settle the matter with their bayonets. Plans, it is also said, have been formed for a night attack on Lawrence.

Rumors are circulating that Marshal Donaldson and Sheriff Jones have been killed in a fight at Franklin, where a collision occurred over the goods stolen at Lawrence.
