The most shocking excesses are perpetrated among the Free State settlers for miles from Leavenworth.

Gov. Price has been in the disturbed district. He hurried home, hourly expecting dispatches from the President to order out the state militia, in which event he would command in person.

Five hundred men are under arms at Lexington.

A letter in the Republican, dated at Palermo, Kansas, the 22nd, states that a mail carrier just in from Lecompton and Lawrence, reports Col. Titus at the latter place, suffering extreme torture from several bullet wounds received in the attack upon his house, and which it was thought would soon terminate his life. He was treated rudely and harshly by those around him, and was lying upon a bare floor without mattress or pillow.

It is reported that Gen. Smith has sent three companies of troops to protect Government property at Lecompton, and to afford stronger guard to the prisoners, but that he refuses to take any measures to put down disturbance in the country, and says the militia may fight it out among themselves.
