

 The valliant Col. Lane, who has so recently distinguished himself in the Kansas troubles, as an open violator of the laws, arrived home just in time to answer to a petition for divorce, brought by his wife, and which was granted at the May term of the Dearborn County Court. He evidently carries his "Free State" principles farther than his wife is willing to follow.

New Haven Register.