

Col. Titus, so conspicuous in the annals of horse-stealing and house-burning during the Kansas troubles, was found when his house was attacked, shut up in a closet. He is now the military jailor of the Free State prisoners.

—N. Y. Post.