

Later from Kansas.

FRANKLIN, Kansas, Nov. 25.—Last Saturday evening thirty-one prisoners escaped from the prison in Tecumseh, by cutting two holes through the walls with a musket bayonet used in the cells for a candlestick. They had been there nearly a week, guarded by a company of United States infantry. Col. Henry Titus, of Leecompton, is about to leave the Territory with a hundred men for Nicaragua to assist "President Walker. He says after Central America is all right, he intends going over into Cuba to revolutionize that island, and gain it for the South and the South alone. Col. T. has been a filibuster all his life, and was once in Cuba under the unfortunate Lopez. He sent Walker the first company of men ever sent from the States. He came to Kansas about the same time Col. Buford did, and ever since he has been indented with the troubles; a pro-slavery man throughout; good looking; a native of New York; emigrated to Florida at the age of twenty-one; married a rich Southern lady; owns slaves, and loves notoriety. Charles Hays, the alleged murderer of David Buffum, has been released on a writ of habeas corpus, issued by Judge Leecompte. The Governor submits quietly to the Chief Justice, and finds himself unable to do anything in the premises.
