What the South must Expect from Black Republicans.

The Tribune renews its vows of eternal hostility to the Southern slave-holders and announces as a truth " Freedom (the North) and Slavery (the South) are now grappled in deadly conflict, and that on he result one of them must lose all control over the Federal Government."-N. Y. Tribune. Nov 22d.

The above frank avowal of the policy determined upon by the leaders of the Black Republican party, does not startle mencement, though many Southern people of good sense thought that it was only a new move to get into power, andt hen they would be as National in the administration of affiars as any other party. Why the Constitution was Adopted.

"We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, [by which to], establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure to the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, [we believe none of them were negroes], do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

This is the preamble to the Constitution. Mr. Webster says, (and all admit,) that the Constitution is the only bond of the Union of the States.

If the thirty millions of people now in tion with the destruction of his press, he the United States, were united by the same is under heavy pecuniary obligations to us, ties of sympathy and brotherly affection as he has been enabled, on the strength of which bound them together in the days of that casualty, to humbug the crazy fanatics the Revolution, then indeed would justice North and East, out of enough to pay for be established, so that whether in Maine or in Texas, or even in California or Kan- relieving him of the necessity of publishsas, a man would be secure in every right ing his paper for the last six months .guaranteed by the Constitution, or by the State of which he was a citizen. Our friend Brown is still at his post and Stringfellow). We are rather surprised, Election. He anticipates! that he can find it in his h-contract to deal so gently with us. There are, however, various reasons for this. In the first place, no doubt he feels gratified that we did not hang him when we had him a prisoner in our camp, which he doubtless fully expected, if he believed half he had previously said about us. And again, he feels that in so far as we had any conneca dozen such establishments; and again, (Judging from our own experience, we saved him some two thousand dollars loss, by being imprisoned, he avoided the dangers incident to the conflict which has raged in Kansas during all that time, and saved him thereby much bodily fear, if not death.

But we fear that friend Brown is trying a new game, as he finds that the game of worthy friend that we have anticipated this move some time since, and we will check-mate you at it. We fear, from what we learn from Kansas exchanges, that there are pro-slavery men in Kausas, who believe that their cause will be benefitted by setting the authority of Gov. Geary at defiance when it suits them to do so—that is when his impartial administration of the law bears upon some ragamuffin, who expect his pro-slavery declaration to shield his villany Such men are the auxiliaries most highly valued by abolitionists; and their lawless manifestations,, which exasperate enemies and disgust their best friends, are, more than aught else, calculated to make Kansas a free State. We must have quiet in Kansas to make it a slave State, because civil disorder will prohibit the introduction of slaves and their retension when there. The question with northern and southern traitors, in Kansas and out of it, is not so much that it shall be a free or slave slave State, but that it may be used to ailienate and thereby hope to sneak in with your the pesple and destroy the Union .- Boonville (Mo.) In these lines the gifted Pope enunciated a great trath, which can now be anplied with peculiar appropriateness to to the editor of the " Boonville Observer," whose scurrilous production heads this article. Pope must have had just such a man in his mind's eye, when he penned these lines. For an editor, who prates such stuff as that contained in the extract from the "Observer," to talk about others allienating the people and destroying the Union," is, to us, a farrage of nonsense, stupidity, ignorance, and audacity. The duplicity, dessimulation, and equivopro-slavery editors, are not only doing the pro-slavery party in Kansas incalculable harm-but also are doing more to dissolve the Union than Giddings, Hale, Saward, and Sumner, with their hosts of followers at the North. There are a few specimens of pro-slavery editors in Missouri and other pro-slavery States, who have certainly mistaken their climes-they would surely find an atmosphere more congenial to their tastes and principles in the streets of Cincinatti or Boston.

When we find the editor of a professed pro-slavery Journal, in a proslavery State, knowingly and wilfully belching forth language and Sentiments like unto those of the editor of the "Observer," we are forced to come to one of the following conclusions-to wit: That he has strong inkling towards the "wollies," or that his cranium is so soft that a boiled turnip night be pushed through it. > For The Squatter Sovereign. Missouri Senators. KANSAS TERRITORY Dec. 4. '56. Messrs. Editors :

In several papers in Kansas and Missouri, I have seen articles and communications in relation to the election of Senators in Missori.

Feeling a deep interest in Kansas mat ters, and having taken an active part in most that has been done to prevent Kansas from being abolitionized, and knowing that the interests of the pro-Slavery party in Kansas may be greatly benefited by the election of the right sort of senators from Missouri, I ask to be heard in a few remarks, through the Squatter Sovereign;knowing it is extensively circulated in Missouri, and you feel some delicacy in speaking out on your own book, as your Senior editor is a brother of one of the gentlemen, who is highly spoken of as likely to be one of the senators elected from Missouri.

Not the simple fact that it has to elect two Senators instead of one; but because it has to elect two men to fill her seats in the Senate chamber at a time, which of all others, requires that men of exactly the right kind should be selected. I presume that in the State there are hundreds of men who in mere point of talent would do no discredit to the State, or to the place. But at this time talent alone will not do. Missouri has been traduced, and her people slandered and abused from one end of this continent to the other, and even England has had her hirelings (Gladstone,) here to concect lies about her, till even in the South a suspicion rests upon her. It is emmently necessary then, that she should have at least one Senator who is not only able to stand up before any tribunal and defend her honor and the honor of her sons; but must be one who is intimately acquainted with the whole part which Missouri has played in all this matter; one who will not apologise for what she has done, but who can justify her, and acquit her in the eyes of any one but a place hunter, or abolition fanatic .-I have sat in the Senate chamber and heard lie after lie poured from the blistered lips of Hon. Senators about Missouri and her sons, and could almost have went in anger, because there was no voice there to defend her. Mr. Geyer, willing enough and with talent sufficient, yet he knew nothing of the facts, and hence could say nothing. Missouri, with all her interests tied up in the fate of Kansas, must have a man there to look after and defend those interests. I hesitate not to say thet there the is not in the whole State of Missouri another man who can fill the place we have five millions dollars. described, at this time, so well as Gen. THE CALLIOPE .- The St. Louis Democrat of the 7th, says: " The steamer Amazon which left this city yesterday afternoon for New Orleans, carried with her one of the celebrated Calliones-those wonderful instruments that go by steam, and be heard a greater distance than a blast from all the bugles and horns of the Union, soundingstogether. This is the first Calliope ever purchased in the Western States, and will excite great astonishment at the South."

25 " Lets take a horn," is a phrase of frequent utterance. The blast of that horn may be the signal for the perter to open the gate of death.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Unsolicited, I tend you this certificate. After being nearly baid for a long time and having tried all the halr restoratives extant, and having no faith in abrier, and had my head rabbed with a good stiff brush, and the Restorative then applied and well rubbed in, till the scalp was all a glow. This I repeated every morning and In the weeks they oung hair appeared, and grew three weeks the young hair appeared, and grew rapidly from August last up to the present time, and is now thick, black and strong—soft and pleasant to the touch, whereas, before it was harsh and wiry, what little there was of it, and that little was disappearing very rapidly. I still use your Restorative about twice a week, and use your Restorative about twice a week, and shall soon have a good and perfect crop of hair. Now I have read of these things—and who has not? but have never seen hitherto any case in which any person's hair was really benefitted by any of the hair tonics, &c., of the day; and it really gives me pleasure to record the result of my experience. I have recommended your preparation to others, and it already has a large and general sale throughout the Territory. The people here saw its effects, and have confidence in it. The supply you sent us, as wholessle in it. The supply you sent us, as wholesale agents for the Territory, is nearly exhausted and daily inquiries are made for it.
