

KANSAS — A letter dated at Lecompton, K. T., states that Col. Titus, the famous leader of the pro-slavery party in that territory, "has received a letter from Gen. Quitman, of Mississippi, inviting him to leave Kansas and take command of an expedition to Central America, and that two hundred and fifty thousand dollars will be provided for the object contemplated—the conquest of Central America and more slave territory." We doubt that any such letter has been written by Gen. Quitman
