

~~183~~ We understand that the father of Col. H. H. Titus, the filibuster, of whose career we yesterday published a brief sketch, now resides at Lambertville, Hunterdon county, and is a most respectable gentleman.

The news received by the Tennessee is not of a character to induce any one to unite his fortunes to those of Gen. Walker, and we fancy that Col. Titus will think twice before he ventures to join the Nicaraguan army.