TOYS FOR BABY

Every year the shops show more and more enchanting toys for babies—brightly colored beads that are guaranteed to withstand teething without coloring off, enticing gay rattles of every description, adorable soft animals that baby can squeeze and mawl to his heart's content.

They are charming, but expensive and the mother who has not too much money to spare may leave them to be purchased by kind hearted friends. It's all up to the thought and care with which they are given.

This sports ensemble includes brown jersey coat, with brown and white polka-dot scarf, white jersey shirt and blouse.

viding a wide range of touch and harmless taste sensations.
