

Exile Sets Herself Afire

A Cuban refugee who set herself afire after pouring alcohol over her body was in serious condition today in Jackson Memorial Hospital.

Police said Mrs. Elena Escarpenter, of 1439 SW 6th St., put a match to herself and ran screaming into a bedroom where her two sons by former husbands were sleeping.

The boys, Oscar Mendez, 15, and Calixto Sanchez, 10, extinguished the flames and neighbors called police.
