

From the N. Y. Jour. of Com. March 21.
Arrival of the Tennessee.

The steamship Tennessee, Capt Tinklepaugh, from Aspinwall via Key West, arrived yesterday morning, and 262 passengers, and $8,900 in specie. Passengers with crew well.

We are indebted to the Purser of the Tennessee for the following report:

The Tennessee arrived at San Juan del Norte March 7th, arrived at Aspinwall March 9th. Passengers remained on board till next morning, and left by rail for Panama at 10 a. m. March 10th, at 5 p. m., passengers arrived from Panama for New York, and Tennessee left Aspinwall at 8 p. m.

Left at San Juan, U. S. S. Saratoga; English men-of-war Archer, Cossack, Victor, Intrepid, and Pioneer. At Aspinwall, U. S. S. Cyano.

Tennessee did not touch at San Juan on her return. Stopped at Key West to coal, March 15th.

The position of affairs in Nicaragua remains very much the same as before. Walker held Rivas. The allies are at St. George. Walker has attacked St. George twice without effect. Col. Cupee, who brought down the Rangers to San Juan del Sur, to escort Maj. Dusenberry, was attacked on his return by a superior force of Costa Ricans, and driven into San Juan. He left again on the 7th, the day the Sierra Nevada left with 75 recruits from San Francisco.

Col Lockridge has taken Serapiqui and attacked Castillo. The latter failed, from the cowardice of Col. Titus. The enemy burned Castillo, but still held the port. Lockridge recovered one of the boats. Another boat was burned. Lockridge has his chief force now on Carlos Island, a short distance below Castillo; also a garrison at Serapiqui, commanded by Col Anderson. Titus has left him and gone round to Rivas.

d chaco, with General Caravedo, and a few voluntary r forces of about 200 men, arrived at Paita on the 16th a of February; left next day for La Huaca, to recruit y his men previous to marching on Picora

— News had been received at Paita that General
y Caravedo had taken possession of the city of Picota, h after six hours' hard fighting; loss of killed and b wounded very considerable on both sides.

On the 27th, the Peruvian war steamer arrived s from Lambayeque, for coals and provisions. She s brought a report that General Vivanco has left y Truxilla with all his force, has taken up quarters
e at Lambayeque.

Latest from Greytown.

The Panama Star has the following:

ASPINWALL, March 9, 1857 — The British steamer
Clyde arrived here at noon, with 22 deserters.

Col. Lockridge has garrisoned at Greytown and the mouth of the San Carlos (?). On the 18th, Col.
Titus held a parley with the Costa Ricans at Castillo, and permitted a messenger to pass through his lines from their forces, on condition that they would surrender next day at noon.

One hour before the time specified, the messenger returned with a large Costa Rican force, under Gen. Mora, who drove Titus from his position, with loss. On the 3d, the steamer Rescue returned to Punta Arenas, and was boarded by a British officer, with the usual offer of protection to any of the Nicaraguan army; upon which Titus abused the officer, who returned to his ship and had Titus taken a prisoner, and placed on board the frigate Cossack.

The Rescue was seized and placed alongside the gun-boat Victor. A gun-boat was immediately despatched to inform Capt Erskine, the commander of the squadron, at Pearl Key Lagoon, of the above.
The following morning, immediately on its arrival, Titus and the steamer were released, shortly after which the Saragota came to anchor. The Tennessee will probably be here to-day.
