
A Fuller Report of the News from Nicaragua by the Tennessee.

The position of affairs in Nicaragua remains very much the same as before. Walker holds Rivas. The Allies are at San Jorge. Walker has attacked San Jorge twice without effect. Colonel Cayce, who brought down the Rangers to San Juan del Sur to escort Mrs. Dusenbury, was attacked on its return by a superior force of Costa Ricans and driven into San Juan.

Left again on the 7th, the day the Sierra Nevada sailed, with 75 recruits from San Francisco.

Col. Lockridge has taken Serapiqui, and attempted Castillo; the latter failed from the cowardice of Col. Titus, who led the party. The enemy burned Castillo, but still hold the fort.

Lockridge recovered one of the boats; another has been burnt. He has his chief force now in Carlos Island, a short distance below Castillo, also a garrison at Serapiqui, commanded by Col. Anderson. Titus has left him and gone to Rivas.

The U. S. ship Saratoga and English armed vessels Archer, Cossack, Victor, Intrepid and Pioneer, were at San Juan when the Tennessee left. The Cyane was at Aspinwall.

The Panama Star has the following:

ASPINWALL, March 9.

By TELEGRAPH.—The British steamer Clyde arrived here at noon with 22 deserters.

Col. Lockridge has garrisoned at Greytown and the mouth of the San Carlos (1). On the 18th Col. Titus held a parley with the Costa Ricans at Castillo, and permitted a messenger to pass through his lines from their forces, on condition that they would surrender next day at noon.

One hour before the time specified, the messenger returned with a large Costa Rican force, under

Gen. Mora, who drove Titus from his position, with loss. On the 3d, the steamer Reserve returned to Punta Arenas, and was boarded by a British officer, with the usual offer of protection to any of the Nicaraguan army; upon which Titus abused the officer, who returned to his ship and had Titus taken a prisoner, and placed on board the frigate Cossack.

The Reserve was seized and placed alongside the gun-boat Victor. A gun-boat was immediately dispatched to inform Capt. Erskine, the commander of the squadron, at Pearl Key Lagoon, of the above. The following morning, immediately on its arrival, Titus and the steamer were released, shortly after which the Baratoga came to anchor. The Tennessee will probably be here to-day.

[This St. Carlos, mentioned in the foregoing, cannot be the Fort St. Carlos at the mouth of the lake, but the Island of St. Carlos, below Castillo, which Col. Lockridge had possession of by the last accounts received. Eda. Star and Herald.]
